I am Imogen, a student at the prestigious Stratford-Upon-Avon High. I'm troubled today because our drama club has another play to produce, as usual, but my friends and I have gone through all Shakespeare's works. So I announce a meeting after school.

After classes, Beatrice, Kate, Miranda, Paulina, Rosalind and Viola meet me behind the stage curtain.

"So, any concerns?" Kate asks me.

"Yes, which play are we going to perform? We've done all the Shakespeare."

"I vote for a horror story!" Says Paulina.

"No thanks." Says Beatrice.

"Why?" Asks Paulina.

"How about 'Anne of Green Gables'?" Miranda asks. "It's such a touching story!"

"I'm leaning more towards a work by Agatha Christie." Says Rosalind.

"Which one?" Viola asks, curious.

"I don't know yet."

I'm thinking.

"Why not mix the two?" I asked my friends. "Make the story of Anne a murder mystery?"

"Fine by me," Paulina replies, "but put a horror vibe to it!"

The other girls sigh. Still, we agree on our club's next play. "Anne of Green Gables" with a murder, an investigation by Anne and her friends, and a side story with a ghost.

I'm walking home very happy when my magical girl wand starts to glow. Another mission awaits me!
